Dear Residents of Donald,

With great enthusiasm, I endorse Jim Houdyshell for Mayor of Donald. My years of involvement in community events and initiatives have given me the privilege to work closely with many dedicated individuals, and Jim stands out as a beacon of integrity and leadership.

Jim's commitment to our community is evident through his pivotal role in the success of the Donald Daze Hazelnut Festival. His hands-on approach was instrumental in organizing a team of volunteers, coordinating event logistics, and ensuring everything—from parking show cars to post-event cleanup—ran smoothly. I remember clearly that Jim and I were the last two people on site, ensuring that every detail was taken care of, exemplifying his dedication and work ethic.

Jim possesses strong leadership qualities, excelling in decision-making and open communication, which are essential for the role of Mayor. He has proven to be a community advocate who brings people together, demonstrating teamwork can achieve remarkable outcomes. His ability to listen, engage, and motivate others is what sets him apart as a leader who truly cares for Donald's well-being and prosperity.
